

CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

All activities run by the Theosophical Society and on any property of the Society shall take place in an atmosphere and manner conducive to the well-being, safety and enjoyment of all present and in accordance with the objects of the Society

At all times those present:

- Show respect for every person, their views, opinions and culture
- Give care and respect to all property and equipment
- Behave with words and actions appropriate to the occasion and give consideration to the needs and rights of all

It is the responsibility of every person present (or their guardian) to ensure that this code of conduct is kept.

Anyone not complying with this Code shall be reminded of it and if necessary be asked to leave until they are able and willing to comply.

Passed by National Council on 16 July 2005