All welcome - gold coin donation

Greetings members and friends,

We seem to have survived the worst of the winter, and the Lodge had some most interesting meetings in August with not just one, but two sessions on recent health therapies; Murray Stentiford shared his expertise and had the audience helping each other with "hands-on" feeling the emanations we all have, while Kayla McKenzie-Kopp explained how the disastrous effects of distorted love can be removed without any need for moral judgements using neutral groups with the person experiencing a problem. For more information, contact Kayla on 8250311.

Our September programme also looks promising:

4th September

Our members meeting on the 4th is another opportunity for you to come up with your own theories or one that you have found intriguing. This formula has been used over the last two years and the evenings have been highly stimulating, particularly as it follows our pot-luck dinner at 6 pm which hopefully will also be part of your evening. Do you have something to contribute about one of Earth's mysteries, an event which cannot be satisfactorily explained by natural laws, something on psychic powers,... you choose? If you'd just rather hear the ideas of other members too, that's OK.

11th September

Lodge member Leo Swart will be giving a talk on the History of Thought, a brief overview of some of the main (good and bad) methods of thought in history, and since thinking is something we all do and we can all improve on, a bit of knowledge on how it works might help. The subject is particularly relevant to anyone following a New Age path

18th September

Bill Williamson of the Aurum Lumen group, who gave us a talk last year and made a stimulating address to January's National Conception, will be speaking on the topic: The Priest Kings and the Empowerment of the Land. Intriguing!

24th September (Saturday)

The week's meeting is changed back a day from Sunday to Saturday (same time), when Bryan and Helen Pollock will give us a presentation entitled Nature's Being. Enter into a reflective state with this visual meditation using photographic artistry, music and earth's harmonies.

(Note: there will not be a session on Sunday 25th.)

Library

The books in the library are currently being barcoded and in the process a stocktake of books is also being done. It appears there are a few books that are on loan that are not in the library's issuing book. If you have any books that need to be returned to the library can you please bring them in next time you come along on Sunday. If you need someone to collect them call Tony on 825 8811.

Pleasant speech multiplies friends, and a gracious tongue multiplies courtesies. Let those who are friendly with you be many, but let your advisers be one in a thousand.

Ecclesiasticus 6 vv 5-6.

With kind regards from Charles, Tony, Fiona, David, Vicki, John, Leo, Brian.
